DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-10, drawn to a process for obtaining samples from a cascade impactor, classified in class 436, subclass 174.
- II. Claims 11-29, drawn to method of cleaning an impactor, classified in class 134, subclass 32.
- III. Claims 33-36, drawn to a method of handling and cleaning a housing, classified in class 73, subclass 12.08.

Inventions Group I and Group II are related as combination and subcombination.

Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the drying step by using a drying fluid, does not need to take place all the time, but only for the application of the anti-bounce reagent. The subcombination has separate utility such as apply an anti-bounce reagent in the absence of a drying fluid by allowing the impaction surface to dry over time instead of decreasing the drying time with a drying fluid.

Inventions Group I and Group IV are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the process as claimed can be practiced by hand, using a pipette to spray the wash solution into the chamber then use gravity to drain the collection container to collect the sample.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II or III or IV, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

A telephone call was made to Nick Westman on 2/7/05 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
